

IET Academic Partners

Jake Godfrey
IET Academic Account Manager

IET Employability Skills Events

- Routes to professional registration
- Industry Expectations
- Making an impact with your CV
- Take Control of your Career

Student Technician Registration

- Why does student technician registration matter?
 - Skills gap
- Making the most of an industrial placement
- Opportunity for students to leave university with two qualifications

Career Manager for Students

- Online Professional Development system
- Student Support Materials for Career Manager
 - Examples of competences gained as a student
 - Quick Guide for academic partner universities
 - Presentation highlighting key parts of Career Manager

Manchester
Metropolitan University

IET On Campus

- The link between university and industry
- Run by students, for students!
- Provides students with resources, connections, support and inspiration

- Examples of On Campus student activity:

- Freshers' Fairs
- Hackathons
- Dragons' Den / Robot Wars events
- Competitions – e.g. Space Hopper competition

- Benefits for students

- Access to IET knowledge resources
- Develop new skills and improve CVs
- Build a professional network
- Raise profile within university

IET Events

Academic Partner Event

Attendees, speakers and staff at the Academic Partner Event held at IET Birmingham: Austin Court in June 2015.

Annual Partnership Event

L-R The IET's Mike Harding, BBC CTO Matthew Postgate, and BAE Systems Manager of Engineering Clive Kelsall, who spoke at the Annual Partnership event 2015 hosted at IET London: Savoy Place in December.

Thank you

Jake Godfrey
Academic Account Manager

Evanna Gale
Academic & Graduate
Account Manager

Sally Davidson Jones
Partnership & Development
Manager